M-Men Tourney Slates Free Tilts

BRIGHAM Young University students will be admitted to all activity cards to afternoon games, except finals, and to today evening's opening session of the M-Men Basketball tournament, scheduled for the Smith Fieldhouse all next week.

Thirty-two M-Men teams from across throughout the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be competing in the play-off tournament.

THE STUDENTBODY budget provides for payment of a sum which permits students to attend some of the games without charge. Students may in any section during the afternoon games.

Journalism Head To Speak Before Coast Press Meet

Dr. Oliver R. Smith, chairman of Brigham Young University Journalism department, will be guest speaker at the annual West Coast Press Clinic to be held in Seattle Friday and Saturday.

The clinic is sponsored by the American Newspaper Editors' Association. Topics to be covered include reporting, feature writing, editing, and advertising problems in school papers. Dr. Smith is chairman of the Utah High School Journalism conference held annually at BYU and head of the Student Publications Council at BYU. At month he was appointed vice president of the National Council of College Publication Advisors.

Next Quarter Fees Can Now Be Paid

Students may pay their $60 tuition fees and pick up spring quarter activity cards in the cashier's office in the Maceur building basement through the end of winter quarter.

Students who have already paid spring quarter fees may ask up activity cards now also, according to word from the cashier's office.

Students may purchase bleacher-seat tickets for evening games after the opener at 50 cents a game. "Season" tickets for the week are available to students for $1.25. Tickets are

Pay Raise Bill Signed By BYU Veterans

Almost 1,000 veterans had signed a petition asking for a raise in G.I. Bill education allowances by press time Wednesday, according to Bill Walton, Provo, spokesman for the veterans committee which drew up the petition.

Petition-signing booths were to be open through Wednesday afternoon, Thursday and Friday the petition will be available for signing in the Veterans Coordinator's Office, Maceur Building basement, Walton said.

One general petition was drawn up to be sent to Senator John L. Kennedy (R-Mass.), sponsor of a Senate Bill which would increase the allowances about 14 per cent. The committee plans to send Sen. Kennedy a letter asking him to "lobby" for the bill among congressmen from states with a high student representation on the petition. Utah, Idaho, California, and Arizona are among the states represented by a high number of signers, according to Walton.

Winter Quarter Exams Changed

Final examinations for winter quarter have been moved up one day, it was announced this week by the Brigham Young University administration.

Exams will be given March 13-15 rather than the scheduled days, March 14-16. The regular time schedule will be followed, with exams scheduled for Wednesday moved up to Tuesday, etc.

The change was made to allow Machine Accounting office to have winter grade reports ready by spring quarter registration, March 20.

to be purchased at the Fieldhouse Ticket Office.

THIRTY-TWO BYU coeds have been selected as sponsors for the teams. Each sponsor will draw the name of a team to which she will be assigned. Sponsors entertain the teams while in Provo and accompany them to each game. During the finale program accompanying the last night's game the sponsors lead their teams onto the floor.

The coeds were chosen by a committee organized by Gordon Owen, Salt Lake City radio announcer. According to tournament committee members the sponsors were selected from wide-spread areas where there are LDS wards or missions.

City Nat'l Guard To Choose Queen; Coeds May Enter

Brigham Young University coeds have been invited to enter the Provo National Guard queen contest. Monday is the entry deadline.

Applicants must arrange an interview with Maj. Ray E. Cox at the Provo Army by Monday. The winner is to be announced at the annual Provo National Guard Military Ball March 2.

Winner of the Provo contest will compete in the Miss Utah National Guard contest later in the year. A BYU coed, Joan Schoenfeld, Parma, Ohio, won last year.

Tausigs Face Trial By IOC Thursday

Tausig social unit will be tried by the Inter-Organization Council Penal Court Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in room 134 in the Smith Fieldhouse.

Tausigs have been charged with failure to schedule an activity with the IOC.

Brecker social unit, which was tried by the IOC penal court last week for infraction of initiation rules, will hear the court's verdict of the case and receive sentence.

University To Host AMS Convention

Brigham Young University has been selected to host the first Saturday Men's Student conference for Utah Junior and senior colleges.

Plans for the convention, which is scheduled for spring quarter, were drawn up at a convention for the AMS councils of three Utah senior colleges held last Saturday at the University of Utah.

Purpose of last week's conference, which was the first three-school AMS meet in Utah, was to exchange ideas on the functions of AMS on the different campuses represented.

BYU representatives to last week's convention included Mel Close, AMS president; Bob Anderson, vice president; Phil Brown, secretary; and Jerry Griffith and Reed Blake (council members).

A Cappella Choir, BYU Symphony Sponsor Thursday Assembly

A CAPPELLA Choir and Symphony Orchestra will present a music and dance assembly Thursday at 9:55 a.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

Applications Taken For High Posts On 1957 Yearbook

Students interested in working in one of the top editorial or business positions on the 1957 Yearbook are invited by the Student Publications Committee to submit applications by March 2.

Positions to be filled on next year's yearbook staff are editor, business manager, assistant editor, copy editor, photo editor and art and layout editor. They are open to all students who will be in residence during the 1956-57 school year, according to Dr. Oliver R. Smith, chairman of student publications.

Application forms may be obtained from the Student Publications Office, 160 Student Service Center, or from Richard L. Gunn, Banyan adviser, 485 Education Building. Applicants will be interviewed by the Student Publications Committee within a few days after the application deadline.

Personal Reasons...

Football Coaching Assistant Resigns Position on Faculty

PROVO (AP)—Brigham Young University has accepted the resignation of Walley Naidler as an assistant football coach, and said he was leaving at his own request Naidler said he was quitting for "personal" reasons.

Herold Kopp, now head coach at Rhode Island University, recently was named head coach at BYU and university authorities staff to aid him would await his arrival on the Provo campus.

Naidler said he wished success to Kopp and added:

"I feel that everyone concerned should be tolerant and give all of the support possible to the new staff. I also feel they

Nationally acclaimed guest artists and the Salt Lake City Children's Dance Theatre will perform under the direction of Virginia Tanner of the Brigham Young University McCune School of Music and Art, Salt Lake City.

THE ORCHESTRA will perform Weber's "Konzertstück" for piano and orchestra with Reginald Coultas, Carmel, Calif., as piano soloist.

The Dance Theatre will perform "The Berry Tree," "Blue-Black Hair," "Cradle Hymn," "Carol of the Drum," and "Motherless Child." The A Cappella Choir will sing the background music for the "Cradle Hymn" and the "Carol of the Drum." The dance soloist for "Motherless Child" will be Juan Valenzuela faculty member of the Children's Dance Theatre.

THE CHOIR will sing "Hosanna in the Highest" by F. Melius Christensen and "Brazilian Psalm" by Jean Berger.

The Symphony and the Choir will combine for the finale, "Come, Come Ye Saints," arranged by Crawford Gages, BYU music professor.

The A Cappella Choir will be guest artists with the Children's Dance Theatre next Tuesday for a Granite Arts Lyceum series program in Salt Lake City.

should concern themselves with being a consistent threat in the Skyline Conference before considering themselves a Noted Dame of the West.

Naidler's resignation will be effective March 17.

BYU Decides to Change Color of Writing Paper

Inter-campus mailing envelopes and memo sheets have been changed from blue to pale green, it was announced by the Brigham Young University presidency this week.

It was BPP after living several colors that the green chosen was most restful on the eyes. The old blue memos and envelopes will continue in use until they wear out, and the new green ones will gradually come into use.

Late News Flashes

Farm Bill Study News

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate may begin debate late Wednesday on an election year farm bill, portions of which are strenuously opposed by the Eisenhower administration. Chairman (Under D-La.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee who pre-empted early this year that Congress would have a new farm production on President Eisenhower's desk by Feb. 15, remained optimistic.

Slavs Banned Ispacks in Winter War

LONDON (AP)—Yugoslav air force planes bombed German troops blocking Adriatic rivers Wednesday on a "decision of the war" against Europe's worst winter in living memory.

Special teams of rifle sharpshooters patrolled Communist Poland in a hunt against marauding wolf packs driven out of their lairs by starvation.

Another Plane Crash—5 Die

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Five men, including the husband of a Kelllogg, Idaho, woman, died Tuesday in the crash of a KC97 Stratofreighter at the Palm Beach Air Force Base.

It Allows Release of U-2's

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday ordered release of 40,000 kilograms of uranium 235—worth $1 billion dollars—for use at home and abroad in development of atomic energy for peaceful purposes.

The cards cost 50 cents and when presented with a student activity card at the box office of the Paramount and Lasker theaters allow students reduced rates.

Any cadets who were in ROTC at a former quarter and are not currently enrolled should contact Cadets Dick Siewart or Roger Ireland for instructions.

The Latter-day Saint All
M-Men basketball tourney will get underway Monday in the Salt Lake City arena. One of the 32 teams appearing has been fielded

by the University of Utah.
Teams from Brigham Young,
Utah State, Idaho, Oregon, Idaho State, and Utah are expected to play in the tourney. The tourney is being sponsored by the Latter-day Saint Church.

Utah-BYU Clash Highlights Play; Pop Title at Stake

While Brigham Young University and the University of Utah clash in the battle of the giants, the other six teams in the conference will also be trying to better their position in the conference standings.

Friday night Montana will visit Utah State's Aggie at Loan, and the AC, which is currently unbeaten at Logan, may be pointing to the Utah game next night and be in for a surprise from the fast-improving Grizzly. Grizzly, Colorado and new tie for third with SAC, travels to Albuquerque, visiting Bill Stockton's New Mexico team in an attempt to better its standing. Wyoming will continue its feud with the Pioneers in a loop game.
Denver, both teams are far down in conference standings.

Montana continues its journey on Saturday when it meets VU in Provo. Depending on the outcome of Friday's clash with BYU, Utah may be hard-pressed to beat the Utah State of Cec Baker. Colorado and Wyoming leads the way Saturday as the Rams take on Utah and the Cowboys engage at Los Angeles.

CLAYTON'S CORNER

by Ken Clayton

The Daily Universe sports staff has written and edited one misgiving criticism against certain articles appearing in recent issues of the sports page.

Regardless of whether we think we have been brought in light criticism of officials, coaches, players, or Utah State sports etc., our task is to objectively report those happenings as we see them. That's our job to report the facts and not to take sides.

The sports page does not subscribe to the theory that sensationalism attracts readership, and we have tried to touch positive outlooks on all topics reviewed on this page. Occasionally, unpleasant things occur that we feel should be brought out in the open so that corrective measures may be taken by those in authority.

It is also the policy of the sports staff to print nothing unless it has been handed down by proper authority as true, or has been observed by members of the sports staff who know for a certainty that various facts do exist.

If anyone has any questions regarding policies or stories appearing in the Universe sports page, he is cordially invited to call at the office and discuss the situation. If we can't provide the answers, we'll take all questions to competent authority who can.

So much for our policies. Meanwhile, yours for better understanding in the world of sports.

Sweetheart, Attendants Named At Lambda Delta Sigma Dance

Karna Heaton, Salt Lake City, was crowned Lambda Delta Sigma Sweetheart at the unit's annual invitational Friday night. Chosen as her attendants were Delia Durfee, Salt Lake City, and Marlene Taylor, Thatcher, Ariz.

The sweetheart and her attendants were selected by ballot of Lambda Delta Sigma members, and crowned by last year's royalty.

Selection was made on the basis of personality and service. It was also necessary for the candidate to be a representative of Lambda Delta Sigma ideals: fellowship, culture, intellectuality, leadership, and spirituality.

Younger Unit

Story of Lancer Group Told

by Howard Hill
Universe Staff Writer

(Ed Note: This article is second in a series featuring BYU social units.)

The Lancer social unit, one of the newer units on the Brigham Young University campus, was organized on Feb. 3, 1952.

The unit started with 15 members, but today there are only four of the charter members still active. Over half of the original 15 have been called on missions, and a few have gone into the service. The four remaining charter members are Jack Hansen, Ron Sammons, Robert Strang, and Byrnest Jensen.

Lancers were organized for the purpose of promoting a spirit of school spirit, promoting better athletic competition, have more social entertainment at a higher quality, and to build spirituality, fellowship, brotherhood, and loyalty.

The Lancers, whose faculty sponsor is Alan R. Whitbeck, adopted black and light blue as their unit colors.

The unit's emblem is a gold Lancer on horseback flanked by rubus which symbolizes brotherhood, spirituality, and loyalty.

Parking Lot Tamperers Should Be Turned In

Faculty members and students have been asked by the Security Office to report anyone tampering with cars in the parking areas.

The Security Office reported that during the high school game last week, an car was let out of the tires of six cars.
